

The sun is 400 times further away from the earth than the moon, yet both appear to be exactly the same size at a time of total eclipse.

How many times greater than the volume of the moon is the volume of the sun? Ring the correct answer.

8 million times 8 billion times

SAMPLE

16 million times

16 billion times

64 million times 64 billion times

SAMPLE

Resources: One large ring (rubber band or similar)